About Kappa Upsilon Eta Eta Nu

Kappa Upsilon Eta Eta Nu (Kueen) is a non-collegiate movement that will bring together a bond of womanhood that will ignite, inspire, and improve generations. Kueen will provide a lifetime of leadership and education through programs and events that will enhance local communities. The movement is a sisterhood of predominantly Black motivated women who are seeking change and growth in themselves. Kappa Upsilon Eta Eta Nu is a movement of women getting together to ignite, inspire, and improve relationships through communication, civility, and culture.

Kappa Upsilon Eta Eta Nu (Kueen) is a womanhood in which we get together to promote connectedness and growth within one another. Kueen is intended to strengthen the opinions and thoughts of our women, allow our queens a passage to express their feelings and concerns on issues they feel are important, create a secure environment for our queens to be themselves without scrutiny and judgment, and most importantly, having fun, while being able to make healthy relationships and positive connections with one another.

Kappa Upsilon Eta Eta Nu is a different kind of women's program ... we truly value the well-being and security of our Queens. We are genuinely leaving positive influences and healthy relationships so that our Queens will have the tools needed to get through life without doubting themselves or having low self-esteem. We embrace everyone's talent, beauty, and experiences as individuals. We recognize that our Queens are their own women and we never try to change or shape them to be anything different than who they are. Kappa Upsilon Eta Eta Nu is a program that will provide growth, education, communication, relationships, and security to our Queens. We hope to ignite, improve, and inspire our Queens by keeping our programs informal, entertaining, and enjoyable to our members. By doing this, we will be able to progress into the best of our womanhood.

Goal:

- We want to boost egos, build confidence, and raise consciousness within our Kueens. By networking and communicating with the community, and other ladies, we will provide connections no other movement can.
- We want to see the growth in our selves, and we want to recognize that we need one another to continue to grow.
- We want to elevate the Kueen family to the highest of our potential. We will support, motivate, and inspire each other. We want to see a community of women progress into the highest and greatest form of womanhood "Kueenhood".
- We want to create positive, honest, & open relationships that will produce a hive of Kueens.
- We want to push young ladies toward a positive goal which will allow our kueens to create their own keys to success. Allowing our ladies to build their future how they see fit, but also having a kueenhood of support.

Kueen Moto:

Kappa Upsilon Eta Eta Nu represents the QUEEN in every woman. We wear our CROWNS proudly and with pride.
